

Larry Ng ex-Tradeweb founder/CTO joins RoZetta Technology advisory board

Press Release
17 June 2025

RoZetta Technology, a leading provider of data management solutions, today announced the appointment of Larry Ng to its Advisory Board. With a distinguished career as a FinTech investor and serial entrepreneur, Ng brings extensive experience in electronic trading, capital markets technology, and early-stage/scale-up company development.

Ng will provide strategic guidance to RoZetta Technology, leveraging his deep expertise in financial technology and capital markets to support the company's next phase of growth. With RoZetta already serving multiple international clients, his advisory role will focus on providing insights on scaling opportunities, market expansion strategies, and potential strategic partnerships in the capital markets data space.

As a pioneer in electronic trading for fixed income markets and real-time distribution of capital markets content over the internet, Ng's entrepreneurial ventures have included serving as an executive and co-owner of Wall Street Systems (backed by Warburg Pincus, exit to Ion Group), Founder and COO of MoneyLine Telerate (exit to Reuters), Founder and CTO of TradeWeb (NASDAQ: TW), and Founding Technology Partner of MarketAxess (NASDAQ: MKTX). He also founded and served as CEO of SpectraSoft (exit to Moneyline).

"We are super excited to welcome Larry to our Advisory Board as we enter our next phase of growth. With several major international clients already on board, Larry's proven track record in building and scaling successful FinTech companies provides a valuable perspective. His deep understanding of capital markets technology and global market dynamics will be a great asset to our go to market and product development strategic plans," said David Sharp, CEO of RoZetta Technology.

"I am pleased to join RoZetta Technology's Advisory Board at this important stage in their development. Having experience building companies from early stage through to public markets, I appreciate the opportunity to share insights with a growing business that has already established strong international client relationships. RoZetta's DataHex platform and data science capabilities are well-positioned in the market, and I look forward to contributing a strategic perspective to support their continued growth," said Larry Ng, Advisory Board Member of RoZetta Technology.

Ng currently serves as a FinTech investor and a board member and advisor to several early-stage/scale-up companies. He is also a member of New York Angels and a mentor to FinTech Innovation Labs. Earlier in his career, he held roles as an arbitrage trader at Merrill Lynch Capital Markets and an OTC derivatives quant at Bankers Trust. He has an MBA in finance from the Wharton School and a Bachelor's degree in Electrical Engineering from The Cooper Union.
